CHAS. S. HARRIS, Editor
Democrat, a newspaper devoted to the interests of the city of Columbia and the people of Adair and adjacent counties.
Entered at the Columbia Postoffice as second class matter.

WEDNESDAY 25, 1903.

We desire to serve notice on the democracy of this, the third Adair District, that in due course of time Columbia will have a candidate for Appellate Judge. It is true that it is rather early for such announcement, but feeling so sure that future events will warrant our position in this matter, we have no hesitancy in presenting the name of one of our townsmen for this high and honorable position. In doing this we have no apologies to offer; no excuse to give and no defects to cover, in the standing and ability of the gentleman whom the people of this part of Kentucky would delight to honor. When the time comes for announcements the name of Hon. J. F. Montgomery, of this town, will appear as the choice of this section of the country. What we might say, possibly, would be of small moment in introducing Mr. Montgomery to the Democrats of this district since he is so well and favorably known, but a few words will not be out of order. Mr. Montgomery is what we style a self-made man—a man who blazed out his own path by the dint of his own determination and whose abilities are known and appreciated throughout the bounds of his acquaintance. At the age of 10 he was admitted to the bar by a special act of the Legislature and the following year he graduated from the Lexington Law School. Starting early in life, with a thorough training and a continuous practice of 25 years, we present a well and thoroughly qualified point of legal knowledge. In his work he is untiring and a deep thinker, a man who probes to the bottom of every legal proposition entrusted to his care. In 1890 he was chosen as a member of the Constitutional Convention and in that assembly of able men his mind directed many of the important paragraphs that make our organic laws. As a Democrat he has been one of the faithful, but has never pressed himself on his party, willing to aid his political associates without the hope of reward or the fear of opponents. This district could not select a better man nor the Democrats bestow a favor more righteously than to give Mr. Montgomery the nomination and election. In conclusion we desire to say that if we are unable in advancing the above, we trust that Mr. Montgomery will overlook our anxiety in presenting his name so early for we feel that we are voicing the sentiment of the Democrats of this section of the district.

A special from Washington under date of 21st inst., says, former Collector Charles E. Shipp, of Louisville, who came here Friday morning has spent much of his time with Representative Dick of Ohio; and with Charles Dover, private secretary to Senator Hanna. Senator Hanna is expected here this afternoon or to-morrow night and Mr. Shipp will also see him. While Mr. Shipp said he was not here on a political mission or to talk politics, it is known that he has assured certain Ohio Republicans that the Fifth district of Kentucky will send delegates to National Republican Convention who will vote for Hanna for President first, last and all the time. In connection with this, it can be said that there are any number of Republicans here, prominent in national politics, who say they guess they are for Roosevelt, but in reality they are for Hanna.

The following is the official vote in the 20th judicial district: For Circuit Judge, H. C. Baker (Rep.) 8,170; Rollin Hart (Dem.) 6,201. In Judge Patterson's district he had no opposition. For State's Attorney, Durham (Dem.) received 6,021 votes. Sweeney (Rep.) 5,147.

All the returns are in and Gov. Beckham's plurality in the State is 20,400.

THE INAUGURATION.
FRANKFORT, Nov. 18, 1903.
To the Citizens of Kentucky:
The inauguration of J. C. W. Beckham as Governor of Kentucky for the ensuing term will take place at Frankfort, Ky., on Tuesday, Dec. 8, 1903. Committees of citizens of Frankfort have been appointed, and it is the intention of the people of Frankfort to make the day worthy of the occasion, and it is therefore desired that the people of Kentucky shall unite in the ceremonies incident, and this Committee, on behalf of the people of Frankfort, cordially invite every one, who can possibly do so, to visit Frankfort on that day and participate, and let us all as lovers of good old State say: "God speed to him whom the people have selected as their Chief Executive for the next four years!"
J. S. Darnell, Chairman,
Noel Gaines, Secretary.

"Mr. John B. Montgomery, of Louisville, is a candidate for sergeant-at-arms of the next state Senate. Politically speaking, John Montgomery is one of the old blue hen's chickens, and has sacrificed both his time and substance in the interest of democracy. Personally, no cleverer gentleman lives. Mr. Montgomery has friends all over the State who will rally to him at the time that will best serve his interest."

We heartily endorse the above from the Glasgow Times. There is no truer democrat in the State than Mr. Montgomery. He has been a worker in the ranks since before he reached his majority, and for his service and steadfastness to the principles of democracy, he has not, up to this time, received recognition. The office of sergeant-at-arms could not be given to a gentleman who would fill the duties more correctly. Nine Senators have already pledged him their support, and we hope to hear of him getting the Caucus nomination.

Dr. Carter Helm Jones, the noted Baptist minister of Louisville, has evidently incurred the displeasure of a feud, as seven attempts were made in twenty-four hours, last week, to burn his residence, 1747 First street. Dr. Jones is a gentleman who stands for the right, and does not mince words in speaking of hoodlums and their unlawful deeds. Because he fights the devil with fire, hoodlums want to destroy his home. A rope entertainment is very necessary at times, and fire brands should be given the leading part.

Up to the time of going to press neither Hunter, Edwards nor White has received the certificate of election to Congress from the Eleventh district. White claims that he has been legally elected, though he has fewer votes than either of the other gentlemen for whom the people voted. The last figures showed Hunter in by 103 majority, but Edwards claims that he will have over two hundred majority on the final count. It matters not who is awarded the certificate, a contest before Congress is sure to follow.

Representative Trimble has introduced a bill in Congress to give tobacco planters the right to market their tobacco free of tax in its pure state, in any quantity or any size package. It is a good bill and should become a law, but it is likely, by Representatives who are not interested in any thing "that would prove a benefit to small growers, it killed."

Teddy Roosevelt has again nominated the negro, Crum, to be Collector of the Port of South Carolina, and again will the Senate reject the appointment. If Roosevelt would stick his nose under a negro's arm and keep it there for a few days, the odor he would take in would probably be conducive to his health.

The old Masonic Temple, Fourth and Jefferson, Louisville, was destroyed by fire last Friday morning. Six firemen are charged with looking stores while the fire was raging. They will receive just punishment. The loss by fire is over $200,000, partially covered by insurance.

A resolution has been offered in Congress by Representative Gaines—Tennessee, which provides that a President shall have a six year term and that no person having once been President shall be eligible again by either election or succession. A good measure, but will die aborning.

There is but little doing in the extra session of Congress. The Democratic Senatorial Caucus decided to consider the Cuban Bill on its merits. This is taken to mean no tariff amendments will be offered, believing that question can be reached better some other way.

We take it that from the number of newspaper articles that have appeared in his favor in the last four years, that Col. Ed Parker, of London, would like to represent the Eleventh in Congress. He has already announced for 1904. There will be others.

The Board of Trade and quite a number of Louisville wholesale men took a trip through the South last week. They were royally entertained at every stop.

Active preparations are being made for the inauguration of Governor Beckham, December 8. We publish a card of invitation elsewhere in this issue.

"Aunt" Carrie Nation made things lively at the National Capitol building last Thursday. She was finally arrested and made pay a fine of $25.

The State Board of Valuation has fixed the annual assessment of whisky at $8 per barrel. That amount of tax will not cut off a single drink.

The only anti-Smoother petition from Kentucky, presented to the Senate, came from Monticello.

A fire at Danville last Saturday morning destroyed $28,550 worth of property.

CHEAP LANDS

For Homeseekers' and Colonies.

The country along the Cotton Belt Route in Southeast Missouri, Arkansas, Northwest Louisiana and Texas offers the greatest opportunities for Homeseekers. Mild climate, good water, cheap building material, abundant fuel, and soil that will often in a single season yield enough to pay for the ground. Land can be bought as cheap as $2.50 an acre, prairie land at $4 and $5 per acre up, bottom land at $5 and $6 per acre up, improved or partly cleared land at $10 and $15 per acre up. Some fine propositions for colonies—tracts of 2,000 to 5,000 acres at $4 to $10 per acre—big money in this for a good organizer. Fruit and truck lands in the famous peach and tomato belt of East Texas at $10 to $20 per acre up. Write us for information about cheap rates, excursion dates, also literature descriptive of this great country and let us help you find a home that will cost you no more than the rent you pay every year.

Dr. J. J. Booker was again tried at Greensburg last week for killing Henry Christie. It is reported here that they stood for conviction and acquittal. Dr. Booker renewed his bond and was discharged until the next term of court.

The Adair County News this week enters upon the seventh year of its existence, and it is now as it was at the start of its infancy, namely, one of the most reliable newspapers in this section of the State. All arrangements have been perfect for the marriage of Mr. J. B. Coffey, Jr., to Miss Emma Hunn, at the Presbyterian Church, Campbellville, Ky., on Tuesday, December 8, 1903, at 8 o'clock, P. M.

There is a more popular young man in Columbia than young Coffey. He is a gentleman of the strictest integrity, polite and courteous to everybody, and cannot be better satisfied than when engaged in something to accommodate a friend. He has been engaged with his father and brother, Mr. W. K. Ashill, in conducting the business of the Bank of Columbia since he was fifteen years of age, making a most efficient helper.

A gentleman by birth and training, necessary requisites to make a loving and true husband. He has a most agreeable manner by which he has his friends with a smile—he has no enemies—the same every day—moving in business with the best of wishes.

The intended bride has frequently visited Columbia and when she becomes a resident will not be among strangers. Her numerous friends here are rejoicing that she is to become a Columbia and will give her a most hearty welcome. In her home town she has the reputation of possessing most amiable disposition—kind, intelligent, embodying all the other characteristics that go to make up a lovely woman.

It is needless to say that all Campbellville and many Columbians will witness the marriage of this highly respected and very popular couple.

There is a more popular young man in Columbia than young Coffey. He is a gentleman of the strictest integrity, polite and courteous to everybody, and cannot be better satisfied than when engaged in something to accommodate a friend. He has been engaged with his father and brother, Mr. W. K. Ashill, in conducting the business of the Bank of Columbia since he was fifteen years of age, making a most efficient helper.

A gentleman by birth and training, necessary requisites to make a loving and true husband. He has a most agreeable manner by which he has his friends with a smile—he has no enemies—the same every day—moving in business with the best of wishes.

The intended bride has frequently visited Columbia and when she becomes a resident will not be among strangers. Her numerous friends here are rejoicing that she is to become a Columbia and will give her a most hearty welcome. In her home town she has the reputation of possessing most amiable disposition—kind, intelligent, embodying all the other characteristics that go to make up a lovely woman.

It is needless to say that all Campbellville and many Columbians will witness the marriage of this highly respected and very popular couple.

GRADYVILLE.

J. McCort, of Columbia, passed through here last Friday enroute for Ed. The Thomas Construction Co. of Cincinnati commenced the location survey at Columbia Wednesday last week and will work on this way, probably reaching here in about six weeks. This is an expensive move and taken with the understanding that the road is to be built. Parties interested expect to "break dirt" in the spring—Lebanon Falcon.

NOTICE.

I will from this date until January 1st, 1904, at the office of Garrett & Garrett, in Columbia, Ky., receive and bear proof on claims against the estate of W. H. Hudson, dec'd.

All persons indebted to the estate of W. H. Hudson, deceased, will call and settle their indebtedness with me Nov. 22, 1903.

MARY C. HUDSON, Admin'r, of W. H. Hudson.

Dr. J. J. Booker was again tried at Greensburg last week for killing Henry Christie. The jury was sworn the one about 10 o'clock Saturday night, and after deliberating several hours reported they could not agree and were discharged. It is reported here that they stood for conviction and acquittal. Dr. Booker renewed his bond and was discharged until the next term of court.

The Adair County News this week enters upon the seventh year of its existence, and it is now as it was at the start of its infancy, namely, one of the most reliable newspapers in this section of the State. May it still be in existence and in a prosperous condition seventy times seven years hence is the wish of the Editor.

Several gentlemen from Fayette County and a number of local farmers were out several days of last week bird hunting. The weather was very favorable, but they met with reasonable fair success. Perhaps one hundred birds, all were "bagged."

No written invitations have been extended to friends to be at Presbyterian Church to-morrow night at 7:30, but they will all be there. Mr. John B. Coffey and Miss Emma Hunn have accepted the leading parts.

A corps of surgeons are now going over the route mapped out for the Columbia to Lebanon. Every day seems to be positively assuring that the road may be built. Mr. Ashill, at no time has he said a word.

A noble woman, a high gentleman, May God bless your future lives.

All arrangements have been perfect for the marriage of Mr. J. B. Coffey, Jr., to Miss Emma Hunn, at the Presbyterian Church, Campbellville, Ky., on Tuesday, December 8, 1903, at 8 o'clock, P. M.

OBITUARY.
Died, near Owensboro, Nov. 24, 1904, Mrs. Nancy J. Rowe, wife of B. P. Rowe, and the eldest daughter of Preston and Prudence Williams. She had reached her seventy-first year, but had been an invalid for 45 years, but she bore her sickness with so much patience—she was never heard to complain.
She had been a consistent member of the Christian Church since early life. Her many Christian acts will long be remembered, for she was always so good to the poor and needy—they never came to her home without leaving more cheerful than they entered; and the many Christian examples she set for her children will grow on with coming generations.
She was a loving mother, grandmother and neighbor. "To know her was to love her." Although she was not conscious before her death, we know she was willing and ready to die, and fully prepared to meet her Savior face to face. Her life was as pure as the drifted snow. She loved her home, her country and her Savior. Her life ended, her life of gifts and helps will long be remembered. She has gone to return no more, but one precious thought, there were stars in her crown when the evening sun went down.
She was the mother of three children, two daughters and one son. One daughter passed over the river of death several years ago. She leaves seventeen grandchildren to mourn their loss, but she lived to see ten of those under the Christian life in their youth. May they follow in the footsteps of their grandma.
She has crossed the dark, chilly stream of death, but we know she is enjoying the rich blessings of that beautiful new world. Well done good and faithful servant, rest in peace and joy.
Her grandfather,
MAGOR.

THE WILLIAMS ROOM.
Illinois Democracy, if all indications do not fail, has a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination in the person of Congressman J. R. Williams. No man in Southern Illinois is better known than Mr. Williams, and, if the State can unite, if Cook county and the country can settle their differences and get together, no Democrat has a better chance to carry the State than he.
A solid and enthusiastic delegation from Illinois, also, would carry weight in the convention. It must be admitted, however, that Congressman Williams is not a public character outside his State.
In his Illinois career is one achievement which tends to show that he may possess the qualifications of leadership. In a Republican district, running for Congress against former State Senator Chapman, a potent man in his party, he put up a fight that simply smothered Chapman.—St. Louis Republic.

Bill Olin James has presented a bill in the National house, providing that when a governor refuses to recognize the requisition of another governor, the latter shall have the right to file a requisition and if it is charged to a alleged crime, with the United States circuit judge, who shall thereupon issue a warrant for the arrest of the fugitive. The only question before the United States circuit judge shall be that of identity. Upon arrest under such proceedings the fugitive shall be remanded to the State demanding it. The bill is well conceived and should become a law immediately. It should not be in the power of corrupt or weak governors to withhold to protect assassins and others to thwart the law, and power ought to be somewhere to prevent them from doing so.

Patrons' Week.

Some of the Kentucky Republicans are crying out for new party leaders. Something new somewhere is certainly needed. Some of the "new" ought to be discharged, even if it is necessary to hire them over again.

The body of Lee Fisher, a prominent Ohio country farmer, was found hanging in a deserted house on the farm. Ill health probably caused him to commit suicide.
Drafts amounting to almost $12,000 drawn on the Owensboro guarantors of the State Fair were presented for payment at Owensboro and dishonored.

The United States minister to Liberia has reported to Secretary Hay that twenty out of fifty-six negroes who came to Liberia are dead, and the rest are dependent on charity.

Rollin C. Farrie, of Evansville, Ind., has sold a silver dollar of the 1864 mintage to H. G. Brown, of Portland, Ore., for $2,000.

CHEAP LANDS
For Homeowners and Colonies.
The country along the Cotton Belt Route in Southern Missouri, Arkansas, Northwest Louisiana and Texas offers the greatest opportunities for Homeowners. Mild climate, good water, cheap building material, abundance of fuel, and soil that will often in a single season yield enough to pay for the ground. Land can be bought as cheap as $5.00 an acre, prairie land at $5 and 60c per acre, bottom land at $5 and 60c per acre, improved or partly cleared land at $10 and $15 per acre up. Some fine propositions for colonies—tracts of 2,000 to 5,000 acres at $4 to $10 per acre—big money in this for a good organizer. Fruit and truck lands in the famous peach and tomato belt of East Texas at $10 to $20 per acre up. Write us for information about cheap rates, excursion fares, also literature descriptive of this great country and let us help you find a home that will cost you no more than the rent you pay every year.
